

I am voicing my support of expanding LPFM. At a time when news outlets are increasingly being bought and controlled by major non local entities, LPFM is needed more than ever. These truly local stations provided an outlet for people in the community to hear and share news of that community.

Due to competition and cost constraints, the major media outlets just can no longer provide truly local news content or a platform for locals to communicate with their neighbors.

Thanks,

Robbie Robinson